Yard, Front: An open space on the same lot with the principal building, extending the full width of the lot and situated between the front lot line and the front line of the principal building projected to the side lines of the lot. For the purposes of this Ordinance, the depth of the front yard shall be measured as the least horizontal distance between the principal building line and the front lot line, or right-of-way line. Covered porches, whether enclosed or unenclosed, shall be considered as part of the main building and shall not project into a required front yard. On double frontage lots and multiple frontage lots, the front yard shall be considered as parallel to the street upon which the lot has its least dimension, excepting that where necessary to promote continuity of design and where in compliance with all other requirements of this Ordinance, the Planning Commission may allow such lots to be oriented in the same manner as adjacent developed lots along the same street within the same district. In all cases, however, the minimum front setback required for the zoning district shall be met on both (or all) sides of the lot with street frontage.

Yard, Rear: An open space on the same lot with the main building, such space being unoccupied except possibly by an accessory building or use and extending the full width of the lot, situated between the rear line of the lot and the rear line of the principal building projected to the side lines of the lot. For the purposes of this Ordinance, the depth of the rear yard shall be measured as the least horizontal distance between the rear line of the principal building and the rear lot line, or right-of-way line. Covered porches, whether enclosed or unenclosed, shall be considered as part of the main building and shall not project into a required rear yard. On all lots, including corner lots, the rear yard shall be at the opposite end of the lot from the front yard, however, the minimum front setback required for the zoning district shall be met on both (or all) sides of the lot with street frontage.

Yard Sale: The temporary sale of home furniture, appliances, clothing and/or domestic items owned by an occupant of a residential dwelling and taking place on the premises on which such occupant resides, whether in the yard or in a carport or garage. Yard sales which do not take place on the premises where such occupant resides are considered open-air businesses, except that this shall not be construed to prevent the sale of such items by another family or household in connection with an event where such items are sold by the occupant of a residence on the premises where the yard sale occurs. This term includes garage sales.

Yard, Side: An open space on the same lot with a principal building, situated between the side line of the principal building and the adjacent side line of the lot extending from the rear line of the front yard to the front line of the rear yard. If no front yard is required, the front boundary of the side yard shall be the front line of the lot, or right-of-way line. For the purposes of this Ordinance, the width of the required side yard shall be measured horizontally from the side line of the principal building to the nearest point of the side lot line, or right-of-way line. Covered porches, whether enclosed or open shall be considered as part of the main building and shall not project into a required side yard. On corner lots, double lots, and multiple frontage lots, the side yard shall be considered as parallel to the street upon which the lot has its greatest dimension, however, the minimum front setback required for the zoning district shall be met on both (or all) sides of the lot with street frontage.
