CITY OF ELBERTON, GEORGIA

ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE LICENSE PACKET

[New or Changes]

All licenses granted under Section 4 of the Code of Ordinances shall expire on December 31st of each year and shall be renewable at the option of the Mayor and Council of the City. Licensees who desire to renew their licenses shall file an application with the required fee with the City Clerk for such renewal upon forms provided by the City Clerk no earlier than October 15th or later than November 15th of each year.

Fingerprinting must be completed at the Elberton Police Department located at 209 Elbert Street. The fee for fingerprinting is $62.50 and can be cash, check or money order.

All license holders are required to attend an informational presentation concerning the city, state and federal laws, rules and regulations within 90 days of license issuance. The requirement to participate in said presentation shall apply to initial applications filed on or after January 1, 2011, and to renewals of any licenses previously issued; provided however, that any holder of a license or any manager or employee of any such holder, who has already attended the presentation shall not be required to repeat.

If you have any questions concerning this matter, please contact me. Thank you!

Sincerely,

Cindy Churney
City Clerk, MMC

Rules of Georgia Crime information Center Council Chapter (GCIC) Section 140-02 04, Criminal Justice Information Exchange and Discrimination. Amended.

Criminal justice agencies may disseminate criminal history records to private persons, businesses, public agencies, political subdivisions, authorities and instrumentalities, including state or federal licensing and regulatory agencies, or to their designated representatives. For dissemination purposes, criminal history record information: except information relating to any arrest or charges disposed of under the provisions of the Georgia First Offender Act shall not be provided after the person has been discharged from First Offender status and exonerated of the charge. At the time of each request requestors shall provide the fingerprints or the signed and notarized consent of a person whose record is requested. The signed and notarized consent must be in a format approved by GCIC and must include the person's full name, address, social security number, race, sex and date of birth. Criminal justice agencies which disseminate criminal history records to private individuals and to public and private agencies shall advise all requestors that if an employment or licensing decision adverse to the record subject is made, the record subject must be informed by the individual or agency making the adverse decision of all information pertinent to that decision.

This disclosure must include information that a criminal history check was made, the specific contents of the record, and the effect the record had upon the decision.

I acknowledge that I have read and reviewed the Non-Criminal Justice Applicant's Privacy Rights and Privacy Act Statement as stated on pages 8 & 9. _____ Initials

NON-CRIMINAL JUSTICE APPLICANT'S PRIVACY RIGHTS

As an applicant that is the subject of a Georgia only or a Georgia and Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) national fingerprint/biometric-based criminal history record check for a non-criminal justice purpose (such as an application for a job or license, immigration or naturalization, security clearance, or adoption), you have certain rights which are discussed below.

- You must be provided written notification that your fingerprints/biometrics will be used to check the criminal history records maintained by the Georgia Crime Information Center (GCIC) and the FBI, when a federal record check is so authorized.
- If your fingerprints/biometrics are used to conduct a FBI national criminal history check, you are provided a copy of the Privacy Act Statement that would normally appear on the FBI fingerprint card.
- If you have a criminal history record, the agency making a determination of your suitability for the job, license, or other benefit must provide you the opportunity to complete or challenge the accuracy of the information in the record.
- The agency must advise you of the procedures for changing, correcting, or updating your criminal history record as set forth in Title 28, Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), Section 16.34.
- If you have a Georgia or FBI criminal history record, you should be afforded a reasonable amount of time to correct or complete the record (or decline to do so) before the agency denies you the job, license or other benefit based on information in the criminal history record.
- In the event an adverse employment or licensing decision is made, you must be informed of all information pertinent to that decision to include the contents of the record and the effect the record had upon the decision. Failure to provide all such information to the person subject to the adverse decision shall be a misdemeanor [O.C.G.A. § 35-3-34(b) and §35-3-35(b)].

You have the right to expect the agency receiving the results of the criminal history record check will use it only for authorized purposes and will not retain or disseminate it in violation of state and/or federal statute, regulation or executive order, or rule, procedure or standard established by the National Crime Prevention and Privacy Compact Council.

If the employment/licensing agency policy permits, the agency may provide you with a copy of your Georgia or FBI criminal history record for review and possible challenge. If agency policy does not permit it to provide you a copy of the record, information regarding how to obtain a copy of your Georgia, FBI or other state criminal history may be obtained at the GBI website (<http://gbi.georgia.gov/obtaining-criminal-history-record-information>).

If you decide to challenge the accuracy or completeness of your Georgia or FBI criminal history record, you should send your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information. Alternatively, you may send your challenge directly to GCIC provided the disputed arrest occurred in Georgia. Instructions to dispute the accuracy of your criminal history can be obtained at the GBI website (<http://gbi.georgia.gov/obtaining-criminal-history-record-information>).

Keep for your records.

PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

Authority: The FBI's acquisition, preservation, and exchange of fingerprints and associated information is generally authorized under 28 U.S.C. 534. Depending on the nature of your application, supplemental authorities include Federal statutes, State statutes pursuant to Pub. L. 92-544, Presidential Executive Orders, and federal regulations. Providing your fingerprints and associated information is voluntary; however, failure to do so may affect completion or approval of your application.

Principal Purpose: Certain determinations, such as employment, licensing, and security clearances, may be predicated on fingerprint-based background checks. Your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics may be provided to the employing, investigating, or otherwise responsible agency, and/or the FBI for the purpose of comparing your fingerprints to other fingerprints in the FBI's Next Generation Identification (NGI) system or its successor systems (including civil, criminal, and latent fingerprint repositories) or other available records of the employing, investigating, or otherwise responsible agency. The FBI may retain your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics in NGI after the completion of this application and, while retained, your fingerprints may continue to be compared against other fingerprints submitted to or retained by NGI.

Routine Uses: During the processing of this application and for as long thereafter as your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics are retained in NGI, your information may be disclosed pursuant to your consent, and may be disclosed without your consent as permitted by the Privacy Act of 1974 and all applicable Routine Uses as may be published at any time in the Federal Register, including the Routine Uses for the NGI system and the FBI's Blanket Routine Uses. Routine uses include, but are not limited to, disclosures to: employing, governmental or authorized non-governmental agencies responsible for employment, contracting, licensing, security clearances, and other suitability determinations; local, state, tribal, or federal law enforcement agencies; criminal justice agencies; and agencies responsible for national security or public safety.

Keep for your records.
